NOTES

Highly visible and situated between two significant traffic corridors, Williamson Rd-19,000 vehicles per day and Interstate 581-79,000 vehicles per day, the Williamson at Franklin site is less than half a mile for an interstate interchange and is just blocks from the Historic Farmers Market and the Market District hub of retail and restaurants. Elmwood Park, one of the city's largest, is located directly across Williamson Road and offers tremendous view opportunities for larger scale development.

The site is located adjacent to the global headquarters of Meridium and offers direct proximity to the largest business center in Southwestern Virginia. Downtown Roanoke is home to significant regional financial headquarters, Carilion Clinic, the local headquarters of Norfolk Southern and others employing 14,000 workers. Also within walking distance are the region's main cultural attractions including the Taubman Museum of Art and Center in the Square.

The site can be combined with an adjacent parcel (#4013322) for a combined development site of just under 1 acre. The price for the site has not been set. Proposals should be directed to the City of Roanoke Development and Housing Authority.
