

#DowntownMuralProject Artists

Alicia Hollingsworth-Young

Alicia is a graduate of Radford University, receiving her Bachelors of Science in Studio Art in 2007. Her specialties include acrylic painting, pencil drawing and large format pieces. She currently lives and works in Roanoke.

Céline Aziza Kaldas Anderson

Céline is an artist and educator from Roanoke. She graduated from Swarthmore College with a BA in Anthropology and served as an Americorps Member in Los Angeles. She has shown work in Liminal Alternative Artspace (Roanoke) Soo Visual Arts Center (Minneapolis) and La Luz de Jesus (Los Angeles). She currently resides in Roanoke where she is a teaching assistant in elementary school.

Maggie Perrin-Key

Maggie is an artist based in Roanoke. She attended Hollins University where she studied painting and graduated with a B.A. in 2017. She has been showing her work regionally in juried exhibitions since she was a student, and had her first solo show in 2019. Painting has been Maggie's primary medium for exploring abstract spaces, and she has recently begun exploring collage, paper cut outs, and mobile art as a way to further communicate her abstract compositions.

Lucinda Rowe

Lucinda is an artist and illustrator based in Roanoke. She specializes in delicately detailed biological illustrations and whimsical, watercolor children's illustrations. She received an MFA in Children's Book Writing & Illustrating from Hollins University in 2019 and illustrated "Slow Time Hush Time" in 2020, a board book given to all new mothers in the Roanoke area. She sells her work on Etsy (Lucinda Rowe Art) and in select regional shops. See more of her work on her website, www.LucindaRoweArt.com, or her instagram, @LRoweArt.

